3. Train

The train station is situated at level -1 in the arrival area of Terminal 1 in Casablanca Airport. Trains are departing from the airport direction Rabat (with one change see below) or vice versa every hour between 03:00 am to 10:00 pm approximately. There is no direct line of train to Rabat, you must change the train in the Casa Voyageurs Station or Casa Port Station. In fact, for every shuttle from the airport that arrives at Casa Voyageurs or Casa Port, there's a connecting train to Rabat waiting on the same platform. Once arrived in Rabat, we recommend to leave the train in the Rataf-Agdal Station, the nearest train station to the recommended hotels. You take then a blue taxi and ask the driver to take you to your hotel (around 15 MAD/ 1,5 €).

Journey time is about between 2 hours and 2 hours half maximum. The ticket for one way costs 133 MAD (14 €) for the first class and 80 MAD (8 €) for the second class.

Make sure about the scheduled train hours when you want to depart from Casablanca or from the airport, timings can change. Please check the website of the national railroad company ONCF:
